Wood! Wood!—The last Press says: "The Wood is wanted."

Any amount of good wood wanted at this office or subscription. Now is the time to bring it in.

We expect, next week, to be able to lay before our readers the President's Message.

Rend the advertisements of J. Pelan, Clinton, etc.

J. S. York Esq., has placed us under obligations, for a valuable file of New York papers.

Thanks to Hon. John Carey, for copies of the Congressional Globe, containing the debates in Congress.

There is still room on our "Roll of Honor" for more names. Every one, who dares to begin the new year with a clear conscience, should pay the printer his due.

The Ladies' Oyster Supper, at the Shawan House, on Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Episcopal Church, was well attended and passed very agreeably.

The Carrier is waiting patiently for that New Year Address, which we described two weeks ago, to be handed in by the 25th inst. Have none of our readers assumed the mount of inspiration?

We are indebted to Dr. J. Williams, of the Auditor's Office, Columbus, for a table showing the average value per acre of real property in the State of Ohio, in 1859, as computed with 1853.

Howard Association, Philadelphia.—This well known benevolent Institution has proved itself by a long course of honorable dealing to be a perfectly reliable and useful Institution. We commend it to the attention of the public with much confidence.

NEIGHBORING COUNTY NEWS.

HUNTER.—The Plymouth Advertiser says that Mans and Shaub, charged with poisoning at Wakeman, some months ago, have been tried and found guilty.

RANDOLPH.—The Fremont Messenger says that a man, who had been missing for some time, was found dead at Randolph, Ohio, on Saturday evening. He was entered one night last week, and about an hour she went out to see why he stayed so long. She found him lying on his back, and in about two minutes he died. Supposed to have been an epileptic fit. He was a man of very temperate habits.

WOOSTER.—An old resident of this county, was found the other day in his wagon while dying convulsions. As we understand, he had been working at his wagon house to crack ice. After about an hour she went out to see why he stayed so long. She found him lying on his back, and in about two minutes he died. Supposed to have been an epileptic fit. He was a man of very temperate habits.

TOOMY.—The Fremont Messenger says that Tommy had been a dayman in our town, and did regularly in cold water every summer, sprinkling the streets of Fremont.

WOODSBURG.—Some ungrateful wretch has stolen the shirt, belonging to the editor of the Perryburgh Journal. He deserves to be Lynch'd.

ALLEN.—The Banking and Exchange office of Jacobs & Ward, at Lima, made an assignment last week. The "Inquirer" is of the opinion that their assets are ample sufficient to pay all their liabilities.

WANDON.—The last Press says: "The Wandon is an old honest, faithful, upright man, who has lived a simple life, and is a good example to others. He will not help but come to the conclusion that this was not their first visit to a large town."

CRAWFORD.—We learn from the Forum that Daniel Wilson, an old settler of this township, and a much respected and wealthy citizen, destroyed himself by cutting his throat, on Wednesday morning of this week, with a knife in his belt. He left no will, nor any record of his affairs.

ROCKWELL.—A woman, who had been a widow for many years, and had been a member of the church, died on Saturday evening, leaving a sum of $500 to her husband, and $100 to her son, and $100 to her daughter.

CHAS. H. KIRK.—A woman, who had been a widow for many years, and had been a member of the church, died on Saturday evening, leaving a sum of $500 to her husband, and $100 to her son, and $100 to her daughter.

WILSON.—A woman, who had been a widow for many years, and had been a member of the church, died on Saturday evening, leaving a sum of $500 to her husband, and $100 to her son, and $100 to her daughter.
